

Littana SOUMPHOLPHAKDY

Education, Governance, Environment, Socio-Economic and Community Expert

Position: Senior Consultant

Nationality: Lao

Education and training:

- Diplôme Post Universitaire d'Ecology & d'Aménagement- UNESCO Commission-Paris- France- 1976
- M.Sc.(Maitrise de Biologie Végétale) Faculté des Sciences, Nancy- France-1971
- B. Sc. (Licence es Science) Faculté des Sciences, Montpellier –France
- Private education as part of human resource vehicle in Laos, Ministry of Education/ADB -2002
- Administration, Human resource and Management of Private Education, Faculty of Education, Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok-Thailand- 2000
- Market Economics and Economics Management. Bank of Lao PDR (EDI World Bank)- 1995
- Project Management, Srinakharinwirot University Bangkok (Thailand). 1994
- Technology in the curriculum, personnel management, Faculty of Education, University of Western Sydney (Australia)- 1993
- Practical Control of Eutrophication of Lake and Reservoir, BIOTROP Bogor- Indonesia- 1991
- Education Administration, Ministry of Education - Lao PDR- 1986

Key Qualification:

Mr. Littana SOMPHOLPHAKDY is a senior consultant with 36 years experience in Education, Governance management, Human resource development, Community development, Environment, Socio-cultural and economic project analysis.

During his almost 30 years assignment in the Ministry of Education, Mr. Littana SOUMPHOLPHAKDY has been in charge of private education improvement, teaching curriculum development, agronomy, agriculture and biology curriculum, including working with international donors projects in education.

He also has provided assistance to hydropower and mining projects in socio -economic and cultural heritage survey, by identify the site and assess the risk of direct and indirect impacts, find out appropriate management & mitigation measures in terms of economic, social and environment including future population settlement and livelihood development.